The latest on the Palawano translation | What are we up to?

We have tickets!

We fly to Manila TOMORROW to coordinate the checking of the NTs. We will also visit the village on Palawan to discuss plans for the NT dedications, which will be in late June.

A few short weeks...

...and the Palawanos will have the God's Word in their hands!

Pray With Us...

- As our church in Manila seeks to round up over 100 volunteers for checking.
- As we make plans for the dedications in June.
- We need more people and churches to partner with us in this ministry of reaching the unreached.

THEY'RE HERE!

(Well, "over there," actually)

The first 80 printed copies of the Palawano New Testament have been delivered. The rest of them will arrive with this next week... or so they say!

Stacks of boxes, containing all 2,500 books, are waiting to be quality checked. Please PRAY they are delivered in time

We're packing our bags to go...

Rejoice with us!

Reaching Palawanos—and the world—together with you,
